At The Healing Touch, we bring together physical and energetic healing to bring your body back into balance.

We start with Reiki, an energy modality that works on the energetic body to speed up the body's natural healing process and bring the mind and emotions into balance.

Then we add in massage, a proven healing modality that relaxes the body, unravels tension, eases anxiety and stress, lowers blood pressure and strengthens the immune system.

Each one is powerful on its own.

Combining them brings them to a whole new level!

Some of the services we provide include:

Reiki healings

With Reiki, you can replenish your energetic body from the drains of daily life. From there, the physical body is healed as well. Reiki healings can be taken alone, or in combination with the massage options we provide.
